A retelling for children of Alessandro Manzoni's nineteenth-century novel. Includes a note about the original novel and its various editions. Provides image and full-text online access to back issues. Consult the online table of contents for specific holdings.
In his theory of the novel, Guido Mazzoni explains that novels consist of stories told in any way whatsoever about the experiences of ordinary men and women who exist as contingent beings within time and space. Novels allow readers to step into other lives and other versions of truth, each a small, local world, absolute in its particularity.
Questo libro ricostruisce la storia del cantiere di scrittura cinematografica dei Promessi Sposi: i progetti di scrittori e intellettuali quali Moravia, Bassani, Soldati, Bacchelli, Guglielmo Alberti, Emilio Cecchi, Marino Parenti, Antonio Baldini, recuperati negli archivi, ordinati e contestualizzati da Salvatore Silvano Nigro e da Silvia Moretti.
MLN pioneered the introduction of contemporary continental criticism into American scholarship. Critical studies in the modern languages--Italian, Hispanic, German, French--and recent work in comparative literature are the basis for articles and notes in MLN. Four single-language issues and one comparative literature issue are published each year.
Jasmine Nichols becomes the Prince of Santo Sierra's choice for a wife when she reveals that she is pregnant with his child.
